Dear James:

I just received your letter of Feb. 5th, and I must apologize for not keeping my word. You had every right to expect the money before now as I told you I would send it as soon as I received your contract back. What happened was the weather here has been so bad, Mr Manley could not get to Camden to get any money. It has just about cleared up now. I hope you were not inconvenienced. You can always spend money. If no one will cash this check for you, take it to the bank and ask them to put it through for you. You will have to wait a couple days, but they will do it for you. If you owe any one a bill they will no doubt cash it and take what you owe them out and give you the change.

Now I have never heard a word from the man you told me to write in Lakeland about training there. I wrote him the same time I wrote you last, so you see he has had plenty time to answer me. I also wrote the man in plant City, and Dr. Slack. I have not heard a word from one of them. What do you suppose is the matter. Can you see the man in Lakeland and ask himself he received my letter. Did you do anything about the game Easter Sunday? Please let me hear from you right away, and answer these questions. What about the draft. How far down is your number? Have you been called for examination yet? Do you have any idea whether or not you will be called this year.

Very Truly Yours
